Planning – Haggard

Haggard delivered stack of brochures to historic Brumby house.

There has been no movement on revising the network plan.

There was a discussion about greenway brochures on campus. The question was raised as to whether we need UGA permission to put brochures on campus. There may be different permissions for different places. Department chairs own bulletin boards. Possible places for brochures: Miller Learning Center, Stem building. Ramsey. Museum of Art. Visitor Center.

There is a poster sized version of map at Half Moon, and maybe at REI. Charlie will check on REI.

Natural Resources – Vacant

Lexy is interested in the chair position, which would leave the outreach committee chair open.

Susie has volunteered to lead an OLLI Hikers Special Interest Group outing on Carr's Creek section in April 17 (9:30 or 10). If this section is not yet open, she will do another section of the Greenway.

Shared photos of flooding that Christine and her staff took.

No other timeline updates. Regarding Carr's creek, there will probably be a ribbon cutting in March.

Talked with Hugh Ogle. Sanford stadium sewer replacement project, which involves two pipes that will cross over Greenway near the cemetery. There will be a path around the construction, which will probably start in April or May. There will be large trucks and big excavator going down trail. SCNC work is being put forth to mayor and commission; on agenda for tonight. Ben Burton project. Loop bridges are both being replaced. Project will last for about three years. Will there be room under the bridge for planned greenway section from Benn Burton to Beech Haven. Stephanie—may be wider sidewalk along Mitchell Bridge.

Sustainability Office – Greene

The have been monitoring the flood and damage. Greene appreciates the updates on trash traps. The new one in Dudley Park will have to be reset, as one side pulled out. The water needs to go down further to pull it out.

2 barred owl boxes are up and both screech owl boxes are up.

Planning – Prichard

Nothing from planning. Tree council discussed trees along Bailey Street connection along Ag Research.

Rose: There are some things that need to be on ORGC web page: When we're having meeting, Agenda setting meeting and this meeting, and subcommittee meetings need to be on website three days in advance. Agendas must be posted, too. Also, we must approve agenda for meeting at beginning of meeting.
