A Quick Look to the Future!

Get ready for an unforgettable night of mystery and comedy as our theater presents A Game's Afoot, the award-winning play by Ken Ludwig. This hilarious and suspenseful production will run March 6th through 8th and promises to captivate audiences with its unique blend of laughter and intrigue.

A Thrilling Whodunit

Set in December 1936, A Game's Afoot follows Broadway star William Gillette, renowned for his portrayal of Sherlock Holmes. Gillette invites his fellow cast members to his Connecticut castle for a weekend of holiday celebration. However, the festive gathering takes a deadly turn when one of the guests is stabbed to death.

With danger lurking in every corner of this grand estate filled with secret passages and tricks, the remaining guests must work together to solve the crime before the killer strikes again. Packed with razor-sharp wit and thrilling twists, this play is a love letter to classic whodunits that will keep audiences guessing until the very end.

Auditions Open to All

Auditions for A Game's Afoot will be held on January 6th and 7th. Interested actors can schedule an audition by emailing act@accgov.com or calling 706-613-3628. Whether you're an experienced actor or new to the stage, this is a fantastic opportunity to join a production filled with rich characters and a compelling storyline.
