

INSTRUCTIONS: CONTESTED DIVORCE WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN

General Comments

In the State of Georgia, if you wish to end your marriage, you must file a Petition for Divorce in Superior Court. This form packet is intended for people who wish to file their own divorce. Use this packet if:

- ✓ You and your spouse DO NOT have minor children together AND
- ✓ Your divorce is contested (you and your spouse will NOT be able to sign a Settlement Agreement that negotiates issues such as alimony and division of property and debts).

STOP. If you and your spouse DO have minor children together OR you will be able to reach an agreement about any issues, you must use a different form packet.

Please read the instructions and each form very carefully; errors in your paperwork can have serious consequences for your case. Incomplete, or improperly filled out forms may delay or prevent the grant of your divorce. If you want the Court to grant your divorce, you must follow the law and complete every paragraph that applies to your case. Do not fill out paragraphs that do not apply to your case. Your papers should remain in the same order as they appear in this packet.

Divorce can be very complicated. The only person allowed to help you in the preparation of these forms is a licensed attorney. State Law O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51 forbids court personnel to give legal advice.

YOU MAY NEED AN ATTORNEY IF:

- The case is contested OR an attorney represents your spouse
- You cannot locate your spouse to serve them with papers
- You or your spouse has a house, pension, or large amount of property or income
- You think you may have difficulty getting financial information from your spouse
- You might lose custody of your children
- You or your children are victims of family violence

Helpful Hints

This forms packet includes Checklists to help ensure that your forms are complete, accurate, and in the correct order. Consult the Checklists as needed while filling out your paperwork. All forms required to file for divorce are included in this packet or are available from the Athens Clarke County Court Help Center or the Clerk's Office.

The parties in divorce are known as Petitioner: the spouse filing for divorce (may also be referred to as "Plaintiff") and Respondent: the other spouse (may also be referred to as "Defendant").

MARITAL PROPERTY:

- As a general rule, ALL property that was acquired by either party during the marriage is considered marital property (no matter whose name is on the title), except for gifts and inherited property.
- If the marital home belonged to one of the parties before the marriage, it may still be claimed as marital property if its value has increased (or mortgage has decreased) during the marriage. See a lawyer if this applies to your case.
- If the marital home or other real estate is title in the Respondent's name alone (or you are not sure whose name is on the property deed), you must file a separate document called a Notice of Lis Pendens. If you do not file a Lis Pendens, and the property is sold before the divorce becomes final, you will not be able to get the home (or a share of it) as part of the divorce because it will be gone.
- If you or the Respondent has rights to a pension that have built up during the marriage, the pension may be considered marital property. Figuring out the value of a pension (and writing the proper Qualified Domestic Relations Order if it is distributed in the divorce) is very complicated. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you think the Respondent may have acquired assets during the marriage that are unknown to you, the law has procedures to use (called "discovery") to try to find out about them. If it is important that you try to learn more about the Respondent's assets, you should see a lawyer.

Instructions

The following are detailed instructions on how to complete this Petition for Divorce Without Minor Children, Verification, and Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit. Read these instructions carefully and consult the Checklists as needed. Not all forms will apply to your particular situation. You may remove forms which you do not use from your final packet.

Petition for Divorce Without Minor Children

Caption (Heading):

Fill in your full name as Petitioner and your spouse's full name as Respondent. Leave the Civil Action Number blank. The Clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your Petition. After the heading, write your full name again in the space just before Paragraph 1.

Paragraph 1: Residence Requirement CHECK ONE (1) BOX

- (a) Check box (a) if you have been a resident of the State of Georgia for at least six (6) months immediately before filing your Petition for Divorce (It is not good enough if you used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and have returned more recently that six months ago).
- (b) Check box (b) if you are not a resident of the State of Georgia, but your spouse has been living in Georgia for at least the past six (6) months. It is not good enough if your spouse used to live in Georgia, moved away, and has returned more recently than six months ago.

NOTE: If you live in Georgia, but have not lived here for the a full six months, but your spouse has been living here for the past six months, you may still use this Petition and file in Georgia. If this situation applies to you, check box (b) and cross out the words “I am not a resident of the State of Georgia, but” so that the sentence is accurate.

Paragraph 2: Venue CHECK ONE (1) BOX

Write your spouse’s full name in the space provided to indicate that s/he is the Respondent.

- (a) Check box (a) if the Respondent is a resident of Georgia and you live in the same county. Enter the county where the Respondent lives.
- (b) Check box (b) if the Respondent is a resident of Georgia and lives in a different county than you BUT you lived in the same county within the past six (6) months. Enter the county where the respondent lives.
- (c) Check box (c) if the Respondent is a resident of Georgia and lives in a different county than you BUT they have consented to have the case brought in the county where you live. If you check this box, you must also file a signed Acknowledgment of Service and Waiver of Personal Venue and Jurisdiction. Enter the county where the Respondent lives.
- (d) Check box (d) if the Respondent is not a resident of Georgia. Enter the county where you live, then check one of the following boxes:
1. Check box (1) if the Respondent used to live in Georgia and is subject to Georgia’s Long Arm Statute. Enter the state where the Respondent lives.
 2. Check box (2) if the Respondent has never lived in Georgia. Enter the state where the Respondent lives.
 3. Check box (3) if the Respondent has agreed to have the case brought in the county where you live. If you check this box, you must also file a signed Acknowledgment of Service and Waiver of Personal Venue and Jurisdiction.
- (e) Check box (e) if you do not know where the Respondent is and you have made a good faith effort to locate the Respondent. If you check this box, you must also file a notarized Affidavit of Due Diligence.

Paragraph 3: Service of Process CHECK ONE (1) BOX

For more information on these documents, see Which Method of Service is Right for You?

- (a) Check box (a) if the Respondent will acknowledge service of process. If you check this box, you must file a signed Acknowledgment of Service and Summons OR Acknowledgment of Service and Waiver of Personal Venue and Jurisdiction.
- (b) Check box (b) if the Respondent should be served by the Sheriff's Department. Check the box to indicate whether the Respondent should be served at their home or work, and enter the address in the space provided. If you check this box, you must file a Certificate of Service.

NOTE: If the Respondent lives in a different county, check the box to indicate that they should be served by second original.

- (c) Check box (c) if you do not know where the Respondent is. If you check this box, you should file the forms for Service by Publication. Enter the Respondent's last known address.

NOTE: Service by Publication makes certain remedies impossible, because those remedies require the Court to have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. These include, but are not limited to, alimony and division of marital debts and property.

Paragraph 4: Date of Marriage CHECK ONE (1) BOX

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent were married with a license and a ceremony, such as one by a pastor or by a judge at the courthouse. Write the date of marriage in the space provided.
- (b) Check box (b) if you and the Respondent did not have a marriage license and a ceremony, but you believe you have established a common law marriage. Under Georgia law, this generally means you lived together and held yourselves out as Spouse 1 and Spouse 2 before January 1, 1997. Write the date you began your common law marriage in the space provided.

Paragraph 5: Date of Separation

In the space provided, write the last date that you and the Respondent separated and remained separated up to the present time. Use only one date. If you and the Respondent have separated, gotten back together, then separated again, use the date of the most recent separation.

Paragraph 6: Minor Children of the Marriage

This Paragraph tells the Court that you and the Respondent DO NOT have any children together who are under the age of 18. DO NOT use this form packet if you have minor children from this marriage.

Paragraph 7: Grounds CHECK ALL THAT APPLY

NOTE: You should check only the boxes which you can prove in court.

- (a) Check box (a) if your marriage is irretrievably broken. This box lets the Court know that you no longer wish to be married, and there is no hope you and the Respondent can save the marriage. This is the language for grounds in most cases, and it is the basis for granting a divorce that does not require you to prove fault.
- (b) Check box (b) if the Respondent has committed cruel treatment towards you. Write the acts of cruel treatment in the space provided.
- (c) Check box (c) for Adultery if the Respondent had sexual intercourse with someone other than you during the course of your marriage.
- (d) Check box (d) for Desertion if the Respondent has intentionally and continually deserted you for at least one year.
- (e) Check box (e) if you believe you can prove other grounds. A list of other grounds can be found at O.C.G.A. §19-5-3. Explain the grounds in the space provided.

Paragraph 8: Alimony CHECK ONE (1) BOX

- (a) Check box (a) if you are not asking for alimony.
- (b) Check box (b) if you are asking the Court to order the Respondent to pay alimony for your support.
- (c) Check box (c) if this issue cannot be decided, because the Court does not have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent.

Paragraph 9: Marital Property CHECK ONE (1) BOX

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent do not have any marital property.
- (b) Check box (b) if you and the Respondent have already divided your property and are both satisfied with the division.
- (c) Check box (c) if you and the Respondent have marital property that needs to be divided. To complete this option, check the box next to each type of property that you own and fill in the identifying information in the spaces provided. If you need more space, use a separate sheet of paper, and attach it to the Petition.
- (d) Check box (d) if this issue cannot be decided because the Court does not have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent.

Paragraph 10: Joint or Marital Debts CHECK ONE (1) BOX

NOTE: Creditors are not parties in your divorce case, so the Court cannot take away creditors' rights in the divorce. This means that the Court cannot prevent creditors from trying to collect from any person who is liable to a particular debt. However, the Court can enter an order in the divorce case that says one party or the other must pay a particular marital debt. If the responsible party does not pay as ordered, s/he may be held in contempt.

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent do not have any joint or marital debts.
- (b) Check box (b) if you and the Respondent have joint or marital debts. In the spaces provided, list each creditor (ex: Visa, MasterCard, etc.), the balance owed, and who you believe should pay each debt. If you need more space, use a separate sheet of paper, and attach it to the Petition.
- (c) Check box (c) if the issue cannot be decided because the Court does not have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent.

Paragraph 11: Restraining Order Where Family Violence Has Occurred
CHECK ONLY IF APPLICABLE

This Paragraph asks the Court to enter a restraining order against the Respondent. Check the box only if the Respondent has been violent towards you in the past, and you fear s/he will be violent again in the future.

Paragraph 12: Restore Former Name CHECK ONLY IF APPLICABLE

Check the box only if you want the Court to restore your former or maiden name. On the space provided, write the name you wish to have restored to you.

NOTE: This is not a name change action.

Final Paragraph: Request for Relief CHECK ONLY THE BOXES THAT APPLY

- (a) Check box (a) if you want the Court to grant you a total divorce from the Respondent.
- (b) Check box (b) if you are asking the Court to order the Respondent to pay you alimony.
- (c) Check box (c) if you want the Court to fairly divide your marital property. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 9.
- (d) Check box (d) if you want the Court to fairly divide your joint or marital debts. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 10.
- (e) Check box (e) if you want the Court to order the Respondent to be temporarily and permanently restrained from harassing you or committing acts of violence towards you.
- (f) Check box (f) if you are asking the Court to restore your former name. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 12.
- (g) Check box (g) if you require a temporary hearing before your final hearing to decide any relief you have requested. You must also file a Rule Nisi form.
- (h) Check box (h) as a “back up” for any other relief the Court may find appropriate in your case.

Signature and Date

To finish the Petition form, add the date on which you are signing it, sign your name in the space provided, and write your address and daytime phone number where the Court staff could reach you if necessary.

Verification Form

The Verification form must be filled out with the Petition for Divorce. In the Caption (heading) write your name as the Petitioner and your spouse’s name as the Respondent. DO NOT fill out the Civil Action Number. Before you sign this *Verification, remember that you will be swearing under oath that the information you have provided in the Petition is true and correct to the best of your knowledge. You should re-read the Petition one more time to make sure it is all true, then sign your name in front of a notary public. The notary will complete the rest of the form after you sign it under oath.

Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit

The Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit (DRFA) is like a snapshot of your financial life in the form of a breakdown of all income, assets, expenses, and debts for one month. This form can be time consuming, but it is an important tool for the Court to decide issues like child support payments, division of property, alimony, and attorney's fees. You must be as accurate as possible and try not to guess. Read these instructions carefully, and gather helpful documents before you begin. Good sources of information are: bank and credit card statements, receipts, bills, tax returns, and wage statements.

The DRFA must be signed in front of a notary public. By signing in front of a notary, you are swearing under oath that the information contained in the Affidavit is true, correct, and complete to the best of your knowledge. Failure to provide accurate information, or providing false or misleading information, could subject you to penalties from the Court and delay the final hearing in your case. You are not asked to produce bills or receipts for every item you enter, but you should be able to back up every amount to the Court. You can and must submit an updated DRFA if you have changes to your financial situation, such as getting or losing a job.

Do not leave any blank spaces in the form. If an item does not apply to you, use "$0.00" or "n/a." Do not round amounts. For example, if a payment or expense is $201.50, write that amount, not $202.00 or $200.00.

NOTE: Some items on the list may not occur every month (such as payments for your child's summer camp) or may occur more frequently (such as bi-weekly paychecks), but you must still include them. To account for these amounts, you will need to make some calculations called annualization.

- ✓ If you earn or pay a different amount every period, but you know the annual total, divide that number by 12.
 - For example: One month you make $1,500.00 and the next month you make $2,200.00, etc. You know that your annual income is $25,000.00.
 $$25,000.00 \div 12 = $2,083.33$
Use $2,083.33 as your monthly income.
- ✓ If the earning or payment occurs weekly, multiply the weekly amount by 52, then divide that total by 12.
 - For example: You spend an average of $20.00 per week on fuel for your car.
 $$20.00 \times 52 = $1,040.00$
 $$1,040.00 \div 12 = \86.67
Use $86.67 as your monthly fuel expense.
- ✓ If the earning or payment occurs bi-weekly, divide that amount by 2 to find the weekly amount, then follow the instructions above.

SECTION 1: Identifying Information

This section asks for basic information about you and the other party, your children, and your marriage (if applicable).

NOTE: The parties in a civil case are known as Petitioner: the party filing the action (may also be referred to as “Plaintiff”) and Respondent: the other party (may also be referred to as “Defendant”).

- The first section regarding children addresses children for whom support is being determined in this action (the court case that is the reason you are submitting this Affidavit).
 - In the spaces provided, write the children’s names and the years of their birth. For privacy reasons, omit the rest of the children’s birthdate.
 - Then write whether the children live with the Petitioner or the Respondent. If any of the children live with someone other than the parties, write the person’s name and their relationship to the child.
- The next section regarding children addresses your other children (such as children from another marriage or partner).
 - Write their names and the years of their birth. Omit the rest of the birthdate.
 - List the adults with whom the children live.

SECTION 2: Summary of Your Income and Needs

This section is a summary of the information contained in the rest of the document. Skip this section and return to it after you have filled out the rest of the Affidavit.

SECTION 3: Income

This section deals with your income. It is divided into two sections: Gross Monthly Income and Net Monthly Income.

SECTION 3(A): Gross Monthly Income: This is a list of all your sources of income without any deductions. Annualize these amounts if necessary (see above).

- Begin by entering your wages. If you are self-employed or an independent contractor, use a different section below.
- Continue to enter amounts until the entire section is filled out.
- If you are unemployed, you should attach a separate sheet detailing your efforts to find a job, when you expect to be employed, and how much you expect to earn.
- Attach copies of your two most recent wage statements.

NOTE: Fringe benefits are extra payments or “perks” made to supplement your salary. This may include a company car, cell phone, or meal vouchers.

When you have finished filling out this section, add up the amounts for each item to calculate your total Gross Monthly Income.

SECTION 3(B): Net Monthly Income: This is your income minus taxes.

- Use your wage statements and/or most recent tax return (if there have not been significant changes since you last filed to determine how much you pay in federal, state, and Federal Insurance Contribution Act (FICA) taxes.
 - Do not include other deductions such as insurance or retirement contribution.
- Subtract the monthly tax amount from your total Gross Monthly Income and enter the resulting amount on the form.
 - NOTE: This number may be different from the Net Income amount on your pay stub.
- Next, write how often you get paid (ex: monthly, weekly, bi-weekly) and enter the number of exemptions you claim on your taxes.

SECTION 4: Assets

This section is a list of all your assets. Assets are anything you own that have cash value.

- Value is the fair market (resale) value of the item. This can be hard to determine for some items (such as jewelry, collectibles, or furniture) and may require some research. For these items, use your best estimations.
 - NOTE: Resale value is NOT the purchase price.
- For items whose values may fluctuate, such as stocks, indicate that the value is listed as of a certain date. List these assets even if they are currently valued at zero dollars ($0.00), because their value may increase in the future.
- If you have a bank account, safety deposit box, or any other asset that the other party does not know about, you must disclose it on this Affidavit.
- In the section regarding bank accounts, do not include full account numbers. Instead write the name of the account and the last four digits of the account number (ex: Bank of America Checking XXXXX1234).
- After stating the value of each item in the “Value” column, the form asks you to address whether the asset is marital or non-marital property.
 - As a general rule, Marital property is ALL property acquired by either party during the marriage, no matter whose name is on the title.
 - If the marital home belonged to one of the parties before the marriage, it may still be claimed as marital property if its value has increased (or mortgage has decreased during the marriage). See a lawyer if this applies to your case.
 - If you or the Respondent have rights to a pension that has built up during the marriage, the pension may be considered marital property. Figuring out the value of a pension (and writing the proper Qualified Domestic Relations Order if it is distributed in a divorce) is very complicated. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.

- Non-marital property is property acquired by either party before the marriage OR property that was inherited during the marriage or received as a gift from someone other than the spouse.
- If you believe that an asset is partially marital property and partially non-marital property, you should see an attorney.
- ✓ If the item is marital property, only write its value on the “Value” column next to the description.
- ✓ If you claim or agree that an item is non-marital property, rewrite the value in the “Separate Asset of Petitioner” or “Separate Asset of Respondent” column.
 - In the “Basis of the Claim” column, write why you believe the asset is separate property. For example, if you are the Petitioner and you inherited a ring worth $5,000.00 from your grandmother while you were married (non-marital property), your “Jewelry” row would look like this:

Description	Value	Separate Asset of Petitioner	Separate Asset of Respondent	Basis of the Claim
Jewelry	$5,000.00	$5,000.00	n/a	Inheritance

- If you own real estate, write the full value of the property in the “Value” column. Underneath, list how much you still owe on the property.
 - If you need additional space, attach a separate sheet.
- If you own a car or other vehicle, write the make and model in the “Description” column. Next, write the value of the car in the “Value” column. Underneath, list how much you still owe on each vehicle.
 - If you need additional space, attach a separate sheet.

When you have finished filling out this section, add up the amounts for each item to calculate your total Assets.

SECTION 5: Expenses

This section deals with expenses. It is divided into three sections: Household Expenses, Payments and Debts to Creditors, and Total Monthly Expenses.

5(A): Average Monthly Expenses for You and Your Household: This section addresses expenses related to you, your household, and your family. The form assumes that you and your spouse are living apart. Do not include any of your spouse's expenses in this section.

- If you work from home, do not include business expenses in these calculations (you may already have addressed them in Section 3(A): Income from self-employment...).
- Annualize these amounts as necessary (see above).
- Utility payments can fluctuate with seasons. Many utility companies will provide a twelve-month average upon request.
- If in the past you did not have enough money to spend on an item, but you would normally spend a higher amount if you had enough money, use the normal higher amount.
- The "Children's Expenses" section should address ALL minor children (under age 18) whom you support.
- The "Other Insurance" section requires that you state which portion of the insurance fee covers your children. Contact your insurance provider or Human Resources Department for this information.

When you have finished filling out this section, add up the amounts for each item to calculate your total Average Monthly Expenses for You and Your Household.

5(B): Payments and Debts to Creditors: This section deals with other payments you make each month such as credit card payments and student loans. A creditor is someone to whom you owe money.

- Enter the full balance due to each creditor. Then write the amount of your monthly payment.
 - Write the whole amount you owe each month, even if you are not currently making full monthly payments.
- Check the box to indicate which party is responsible for the debt.
NOTE: This is not the place to indicate who should be responsible for the debt. In a divorce, this issue is addressed in the Petition or Settlement Agreement.

When you have finished filling out this section, add up the amounts for each item to calculate your total Payments and Debts to Creditors.

5(C): Total Monthly Expenses: Add the totals from Sections 5(A) and 5(B).

WHEN YOU HAVE FINISHED SECTIONS 3-5, ENTER EACH TOTAL IN SECTION 2.

Notes

The Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit must be filed with the Court and served to the other party at least fifteen (15) days before any preliminary hearing, and at least ten (10) days before any mediation session. Many people file with their Petition. You should file the original with the Court, serve the other party with one copy, and keep one copy for your records. If you are the Petitioner, you should also serve the Respondent with a blank copy of the form for them to fill out.

Other Forms

For information on other forms required to complete your Contested Divorce Without Minor Children, please refer to the Checklists included in this form packet. You should submit your forms in the order in which they appear on the Checklists.

WHICH METHOD OF SERVICE IS RIGHT FORYOU?

When you begin a legal action, such as a divorce or lawsuit, you must “serve” the other person (known as the other party) in order for the Court to have authority over them. Service of process notifies the other party, gives them a copy of all the forms you have submitted, and gives them time to respond. The most common methods are discussed below:

HELPFUL HINTS

- Participants in a legal action are known as the parties. Parties in a civil case like divorce are known as Petitioner: the party filing or beginning the action (may also be referred to as “Plaintiff”) and Respondent: the other party (may also be referred to as “Defendant”).
- An action is uncontested when the Respondent is cooperating with the Petitioner. An action is contested when the Respondent is not likely to cooperate with the Petitioner.
- There is a fee for filing an action with the Court. If you feel you cannot afford the filing fee, you should submit a Poverty Affidavit to ask the Court to waive the fees.
- Some forms must be NOTARIZED. DO NOT sign these forms until you are in front of a NOTARY PUBLIC.

2. Take both copies of your paperwork to the Court Clerk's office in the county where you are filing. The Court Clerk will stamp and date both copies.
3. Pay the filing fee or submit the Poverty Affidavit.
NOTE: The filing fee and the publication fee should be SEPARATE.
4. The Clerk will file the original. Keep the second copy for your records. The publication must run in the appropriate newspaper (in Athens-Clarke County, this is the Athens Banner Herald) four (4) times in sixty (60) days, one week apart. Once the publication requirement is complete, the newspaper will mail an Affidavit of Publication. Bring this to your final hearing.

NOTE: If you later become aware of the location of the Respondent, you MUST amend your Petition and execute personal service (see above).

NOTE: Serving the Respondent this way means that the Court will not be able to grant certain forms of relief, such as child support and alimony. Later, if you are able to serve the Respondent personally, you can petition the Court to decide these issues.

 - Original gets filed by the Clerk
 - One copy goes to the Respondent
 - Keep one copy for your records
- THEN: Take all your paperwork to the Superior Court Clerk's Office in the county where you are filing. In Athens, the Clerk's Office is located on the fourth (4th) floor of the ACC Courthouse.
 - Inform the Clerk if you and the Respondent have ever been involved in another case together. This will aid in assigning the case number.
 - Inform the Clerk that your divorce does not include a signed Settlement Agreement
 - The Clerk will stamp all copies and file the original. Keep one copy for yourself and serve the Respondent with the other copy.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT:

- After the PETITIONER files the Petition, the RESPONDENT has thirty (30) days to file a response.
- After thirty (30) days, parties are allowed to obtain information they need for the case to go forward (known as "discovery").
- There may be one or more temporary hearings.
- If the Respondent contests the divorce (refuses to sign a Settlement Agreement) but does not dispute any issues, the final hearing may be set as soon as forty-six (46) days after your filing. If you have served the Respondent by publication, the hearing could be set for sixty-one (61) days after the first day of publication. If there are any disputes over issues such as custody or division of property, the case may take longer.
- The final hearing will be conducted in front of a judge or a judge and jury. At any point in the process the parties may negotiate and reach a Settlement Agreement to present to the court.
 - Court Helpers from the Court Help Center can give you information on how to prepare for your hearing.
- Wait for further instruction from the court. Be sure to abide by all the guidelines in the Domestic Relations Standing Order.
- Keep copies of all paperwork related to your case.
- Once the Judge signs the Final Judgment and Decree, you are free to marry again.
